Please use the following lines to provide us with any additional information about yourself that may further demonstrate your qualification you for this position.

I am a very responsible person and I take my jobs very seriously. I have missed 2 days in the last four years, and I love working I feel that my experience with Robard's jewelry has prepared me well for my career, and I am looking forward to someone giving me a chance to take that next step.

Which job did you like best, and why? I loved teaching hard to give up! I still get to though when I am teaching someone about their diamonds or the watch that they are interested in. Plus, I like working with the small team in the stores.

Which job did you like least, and why? I guess teaching again! I ended up spending a lot of time and my own money because I wanted the kids to have a great experience. My parents were both teachers and I saw how little they had. I want to avoid that.

What aspects of your work have given you the greatest satisfaction? Making a plan and following it through.

Which aspects of your work have given you the least satisfaction? My faith is important to me. I don't like missing so many Sundays - I understand retail, but ultimately when I start my family - I will have some choices to make.

Are you willing to work until 10:00 PM? Yes No

Hard Worker - don't like to be micromanaged. Just show me how to get to the money and I will find a way to make it rain.

Which job did you like best, and why? Where's the Beef. I was the night supervisor so there were no hassles. I could run the show. Had a really fun crew and we had great customers.

Which job did you like least, and why? Video Concepts - The Management did not know what they were doing. A lot of young kids that were coming and going. They were getting robbed too.

What aspects of your work have given you the greatest satisfaction? Making a customer happy be it selling them speakers, making them a really great sandwich, or getting them into a car that they can afford.

Which aspects of your work have given you the least satisfaction? Don't go in much for all the paperwork
I like it when all you have to do is sell and someone else can keep track of the details. I like it when bosses just let me do my thing and don't question every little thing that I am doing.
